1st December 2020

Dear Parents,

The chill of the December air makes our tiny tots bundle up in woollen jackets and sweaters to keep snug and warm. It also brings in a spurt of recharged energy and the children love the warmth of the sun, spending precious time with their family. The vigor, excitement and energy of the month gone by left an everlasting impression on the little ones. Children's Day and Diwali were celebrated with a kaleidoscope of activities. The excitement of the day never seemed to end as the children began the day by attending a special online assembly. A dance performance by their teachers and a visit by their favourite cartoon characters had each child spell bound and enthralled. The day ended on a happy note with a Diwali activity and the children enjoyed making a little diya with clay. Guru Nanakji's birthday was also commemorated with a special assembly and a colouring activity.

The month brings in gaiety and festivity with an eager anticipation of Christmas harbouring the spirit of caring and sharing. Our little hands would be busy making Christmas decorations and knick knacks to decorate their homes. Their eagerness to meet Santa Claus brings cheer and warmth to our hearts.

Stories open up a world of fantasy, sparking each child's imagination and stimulating their curiosity. Reading and narrating stories can help children get to know sounds, words, language and develop early literacy skills, also helping them to learn the difference between 'real' and 'make believe'. Teachers and parents are great story tellers for sure and we will hold a 'Story Fest' this month, making the days come alive with meaningful messages, inculcating valuable lessons in the children and helping them to learn about kindness, honesty, compassion and more.

Christmas is celebrated on 25th December every year as it marks the birth anniversary of Lord Jesus Christ. Popular customs include exchanging gifts, decorating Christmas trees, attending mass at the church and sharing meals with family and friends. There's something special about Christmas and children look forward to this festival the most, eagerly awaiting the gifts they receive from Santa Claus. To make it very exciting and memorable for our little ones a special assembly will be held. Fun, frolic and celebrations will be the highlight of the online session on MS Teams along with an interesting activity...and maybe - Santa might drop in to meet our little ones... Ho! Ho! Ho!
