THE YOUNG LEADERS CONVOCATION

The Young Leadership Club of DPS Mathura Road organized THE YOUNG LEADERS CONVOCATION under VY-Leap 2021 on 18th and 19th September. Along with the return of the original three live events from last year - PARLANCE, PRUDENTIA and THE YLC CONFERENCE, two new live events were added this year as INTELLECTIUM and a SURPRISE EVENT.

PARLANCE was first to commence. The event began at 9 AM with the introduction of the judge Mr Arun Chaudhary followed by the explanation of rules. Further, the judge addressed the participants and shared his experiences. Each participant was provided with a topic in advance and was given 3 minutes to deliver their speech. They were also allowed to present pictures and slides along with their speeches. The response from the participants was exemplary PRUDENTIA: Center of the Storm . After the introduction of judge Ms Neety Prasad and recitation of the rules and regulations, the participants were divided into three groups. Each participant was given a crisis, 1 minute to think and 1:30 minutes to express their views. The crisis was given on the spot. All participants enthusiastically spoke and gave a positive response.

INTELLECTIUM a modern-day leadership quiz designed to test the wits of the upcoming leaders. The preliminary round was conducted on Kahoot with 20 teams participating. Only the top five teams were allowed to compete in the final round which was conducted in two parts: an audio round where participants had to recognize famous leaders from their speeches played and the live quiz. The winners were decided on the basis of points gained in both rounds. Participants thoroughly enjoyed the quiz.

The second day for the convocation began with equal enthusiasm and spirit.

THE YLC CONFERENCE started with a formal greeting to the judge Ms Asha Saini followed by the general rules and regulations for the event. The event was conducted in 2 rounds. Participants were told to give an opening statement of 40 seconds and were then told to have an open forum of moderated discussion for 15 minutes, followed by their closing statements which were of 40 seconds. Participants were very enthusiastic and lead a prolific discussion. The event concluded with some inspirational words from the judges' side and the participants thanked the organizing team for the event before leaving

The SURPRISE EVENT started from 3pm on Sunday, 19th September 2021. It consisted of 3 rounds. Round 1 “TERRIBLY TINY TALES” In this round, participants were divided into 3 teams. They were required to form a story with as many sentences as the number of participants. 1 team was eliminated and the rest 2 proceeded towards the 2nd round.

Round 2 comprised of a pitching event “AD MAD”. In this round, the remaining participants were further divided into 3 teams and were given the same product. They were given 15mins to prepare a pitch to sell to the customers. . After the time to prepare was over, the presenters presented and spoke about the product to everyone in the meeting post in which 2 teams remained and 1 was eliminated.

Round 3 “LEAGUE OF LEADERS” was an anonymous round. The participants’ were assigned new names in order to maintain anonymity. They were called one by one and were asked to type their chosen colored sticker from the ppt. Each participant was given 2 mins to prepare and 1.5 mins to speak. After all the participants had spoken, the members of the audience and the participants as well were sent a Google form for voting purposes. In the end, the entire event proved to be an enormous success.

All these events were especially designed to challenge the young minds and make them familiar with the Dynamics of Hands-on Leadership.

IT WAS NICE MEETING THE LEADER IN YOU !
